

INTERNATIONAL FORUM

SOUTH SERBIA - FROM FROZEN CONFLICT TO SUSTAINABLE SOLUTIONS: OPPORTUNITIES FOR LONG-TERM INTEGRATION AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE REGION

SAVA CENTAR, 14TH APRIL 2010

DRAFT AGENDA

09:30 – 10:00	Registration of participants
10:00 – 10:45	Opening remarks:  Milan Marković, Minister for Local self-governance Riza Halimi, PDD and Member of the Serbian Parliament Stephen Wordsworth, British Ambassador to Serbia Mary Burce Warlick, United States of America Ambassador to Serbia Dimitrios Kypreos, Ambassador of the OSCE mission to Serbia Vincent Degert, Head of the Delegation of the European Union to Serbia
11:00 – 13:00	First panel: Current situation and existing challenges in South Serbia  Presenters:  Tim Judah, Balkans Correspondent for the Economist Ragmi Mustafa, Mayor of Presevo Shaip Kamberi, Mayor of Bujanovac Slobodan Draskovic, Mayor of Medvedja Nenad Djurdjevic, Coordination Body for South Serbia  Moderator:  Zoran Stanojević, journalist

Panelists will have up to 10 minutes to present their view on the current situation and what they perceive as the existing challenges to the achievement of full cooperation between the state and the ethnic Albanian minority.

The floor will be opened for all participants to comment and address questions to the presenters.

13:00 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 16:30	Second panel: Models for the future  Presenters:  Ragmi Mustafa, Mayor of Presevo Saip Kamberi, Mayor of Bujanovac Slobodan Draskovic, Mayor of Medvedja Nenad Djurdjevic, Coordinating Body for South Serbia Emanuela Del Re, Expert for geopolitics and security issues for the Balkans  Moderator:  Zoran Stanojević, journalist

Presenters will have up to 10 minutes to present their strategy and their vision of possible models for cooperation in South Serbia.

The floor will be opened for all participants to comment and address questions to the presenters.

SUPPORTED BY